Wanda is fine with us giving what he's been giving. Here's the company names and individual's title the webinar tomorrow. Postcom isn't allowed to share the name. We're up to 228 now...

Sharon -

Please read the description below that has been on all of the emails from PostCom. The presentation that you attached has been the same presentation he has used....and his concern was that most of this audience has already seen it. If you think it meets the needs...we'll go with it. Your call.

The Postal Service has been in the news a lot lately; but, despite what you might have heard, they are not going out of business. Yes, they are facing financial challenges, but the USPS is absolutely not going out of business.

The fact is they are in a period of transition. They have both short-term and long-term plans that will transform the organization into a leaner, faster, smarter and more efficient operation. The U.S. Postal Service is committed to remaining your trusted business partner as well as a vital part of American commerce now and in the future. Join us on Thursday, November 10th at 10:00 a.m. as Patrick Donahoe, the Postmaster General discusses further his plan for financial stability.

I'm about to call you but my understanding is that the "Good News" presentation is what he gave to the Periodicals mailers on Oct 31st which is attached below. I don't know if/how he wants to address more recent developments in the Senate and with exigent proceeding.

Deb, attached is the latest presentation we gave on the Financial State of the Business. Mitzi updated this last Friday. I suspect it will change greatly based on today's announcements.

As I said, I would be glad to help out -- however, I am totally spent between now and next Thursday, the day of the event. So, it is very difficult for me to try to coordinate this for you. If I can help out on that date, though, please let me know. I have Marketing Day all day Tuesday and will be in Potomac all day Wednesday.

Thanks a lot.

Jo Ann

Jo Ann -

As discussed, here is the final presentation. You will get the presentation to Dave Stravach for loading after a final review.

Jean - Please print one color copy for Pat's use.

Thanks.
